A second narrative of the late Parliament (so called). Wherein, after a brief reciting some remarkable passages in the former narrative, is given an account of their second meeting, and things transacted by them: as, also, how the Protector (so called) came swearing, "By the living God;" and dissolved them, after two or three weeks sitting. With some queries sadly proposed thereupon. Together with an account of three-and-forty of their names, who were taken out of the House, and others that sat in the other House, intended for a House of lords; but, being so unexpectedly disappointed, could not take
